PROFILE

I am a UI/UX Designer, Graphic Designer, and Frontend Web Developer who combines visual creativity and technical skills to build intuitive, responsive, and user-focused digital experiences. Proficient in design tools like Figma, Adobe Illustrator, and Photoshop, as well as development technologies such as HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Next.js and React.js. With a strong sense of problem-solving and adaptability, I bring functional and aesthetic value to every project I work on.
